

Ocean of Love

Clifford T. Ward

There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to sail it
There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to bail it. Come on girl and get your feet wet don't be shy
There's no tidal wave in sight
Come on girl let's push the boat out, you and I
We could be there by tonight. There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to sail it
There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to bail it. Come on girl and let your heart rule your head
It's harder to be foolish than wise
Let's show 'em all adventure is not dead
'Cause I can see it girl in your eyes. There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to sail it
There's an ocean of love between us
All we gotta do is learn to bail it.
There's an ocean, ocean
All we've got to do - is sail it
There's an ocean, ocean
All we've got to do is learn to sail it, sail it
Ocean, ocean
All we gotta do is learn how to bail it
Ocean, ocean
All we gotta do is learn to sail it, sail it
Ocean, ocean
All we gotta do is sail it, sail it
(Repeat and fade).
