

Visionary Riches

Apollo Brown & Skyzoo

[Intro: Skyzoo]

I sees you yo

Bet that I sees you yo

I sees you yo

Visionary Riches

Bet that I sees you yo [Verse 1: Skyzoo]

I sees you, bet that I sees you

Swear I caught the vision when nobody believed you

So I had to see you, I came thru to see you

I just wanna kick it some shit I won't keep you

All that you want right? It hit like diesel

It get ahold of you and it refuses to leave you

That's me on the call in, I told you I sees you

My vision exact so if you get to react

Know the difference in that is they don't get where you at

But see I get where you at, so I wait at the door

So ambition won't pretend to save the day anymore

By any more of any means let that feeling breathe

You look for your desires well, I'm where the ceiling be

And I got time to hook you like you're tied off

I'm like pandemic if you got time for it [Hook: Skyzoo]

Visionary riches, visionary riches

If God is your witness then may God forgive us

Or may God forgive you for being indifferent

All I did was swing thru to feed your addiction

And there wasn't a moment there that I didn't listen

And you talking that dream shit, I gave you position

And whenever you dreaming, I keep up your vision

And now all that I need is to be what you envision

[Verse 2: Skyzoo]

Admit you never felt more alive than riding shotgun

On your way to the lot with a lil shoebox love Like never mind dealing with the dealers ever again Fast forward the light, you know you low on your sights

But shit the dopest feeling you could ever hold in your life

Is that there, and the stares that come along

It turns into a high 'bout as clear as the drummer song

And now you gotta feed it, now you gotta feed it

Standing ovation, encore proceeding

Fuck what they be talking, just listen to the speakers

Never steer you wrong, just let me do the leading [Hook: Skyzoo]

Visionary riches, visionary riches

If God is your witness then may God forgive us

Or may God forgive you for being indifferent
All I did was swing thru to feed your addiction
And there wasn't a moment there that I didn't listen
And you talking that dream shit, I gave you position
And whenever you dreaming, I keep up your vision
And now all that I need is to be what you envision[Verse 3: Skyzoo]Funny how the greed can y'all turn into the grievers[Hook: Skyzoo]
Visionary riches, visionary riches
If God is your witness then may God forgive us
Or may God forgive you for being indifferent
All I did was swing thru to feed your addiction
And there wasn't a moment there that I didn't listen
And you talking that dream shit, I gave you position
And whenever you dreaming, I keep up your vision
And now all that I need is to be what you envision[Outro: Skyzoo]
Visionary riches
I sees you yo
Bet that I sees you yo
