

Lucy

Hanne Hukkelberg

Suddenly,
It all seems like a blurry dream
But I was there, wide awake
I lived it all
Come, come back to me
I'm longing for you
And my dreams to be true
Where the fields bloom bright,
Mountains glow
I see him
We were there
We were kings and queens
Close to you
Wide awake
I know where I belong
But memories are strong
Come, come back to me
I'm longing for you
And my dreams to be true
Where the fields bloom bright,
Mountains glow
I see him
Where the fields bloom bright,
Mountains glow
I see him
I'll be back
When I hear his voice
Hear him call
