

When the Good Guys Win

Granger Smith

He's a crazy ranch[?] turning on a big black Chevrolet
First in last out every day
Hes a make a dollar, give a dollar, if you need me holler
Kinda good old boy
There's a single white trailer, couple acres on the edge of town
Front porch, sun going down
And that pretty thing swinging on the swing like a dream
Is wearing his ring Don't you love it when the good guys win
Don't you love it when a ship comes in
Yeah man, every now and then
What goes around, comes around again
Don't you love a little long shot prayer
Underdog on a hell of a tear[?]
He wants to kiss and she leans in
Don't you love it when the good guys win
Shes a million dollar smile in a ten dollar kind of town
The kind that turns hard luck around
She's with him till the end, good or bad, thick or thin
Yeah, he's on a roll now Don't you love it when the good guys win
Don't you love it when a ship comes in
Yeah man, every now and then
What goes around, comes around again
Don't you love a little long shot prayer
Underdog on a hell of a tear[?]
He wants to kiss and she leans in
Don't you love it when the good guys win
Yeah, when the good guys win He's a crazy ranch[?] turning on a big black Chevrolet
First in last out every day
Hes a make a dollar, give a dollar, if you need me holler
Kinda good old boy
Don't you love it when the good guys win
Don't you love it when a ship comes in
Yeah man, every now and then
What goes around, comes around again
Don't you love a little long shot prayer
Underdog on a hell of a tear[?]
He wants to kiss and she leans in
Don't you love it when the good guys win When the good guys win
Don't you love it when the good guys win
Don't you love it when the ship comes in
Don't you love it when the good guys win

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>