

Sad Song (feat. Laura Benanti)

Nashville Cast

there's a bottle of wine on the kitchen table yeah, just hangin' around i could open it up and light a candle just burn the whole thing down i'll be damned if it ain't rainin' perfect chance to feel the pain but i don't write a sad song i don't wanna sing a sad song no, i don't wanna be a sad song tonight no, not tonight
I've been broken godknows all the stories i could tell my guitar's so sick of me feeling sorry for myself same old heartache
you again
did you come to party, do me in?
but i don't wanna write a sad song
no, i don't wanna be a sad song tonight
just when i find peace in knowing where i've been's not where i'm going and i don't wanna write a sad song
tonight,
oohhh
