

Angels

Mayday Parade

Three years of something I call love
When the phone calls and photographs are never enough
To save a heart that's been broken so close to screaming
This can't be happening, I must be dreaming
What's the worst that could happen? I never knew
When all I ever wanted was to get away from you
But now the possible's impossible and I can't refuse
Grab all your dreams and raise all your glasses Let's toast to the lucky ones
To the girl that just broke my heart
I can't breathe after all that you've told me
You took my heart and made me melt again
I could never imagine we'd end up this way
After all that we went through now I'm fighting through the pain
It's like this heart that's been broken so close to screaming
Was ripped from my chest and I can't stop the bleeding Now we all fall for the bad ones
They'll just break us cause we're so young, dumb, and vulnerable
Young and vulnerable Here's a toast to the lucky ones
To the girl that just broke my heart
I can't breathe after all that you've told me
You took my heart and made me melt again (You ripped apart these pages)
I can't breathe
(Our love was overrated)
After all that you've told me
(This breaks up all these questions to me what just happened)
You took my heart and made melt again
(I'll say)
I put your picture in a frame to stand at the side of my bed
So whenever I get sad I can stare at your face
Not overplayed that I won't forget
When all I remember is talking is cheap and you're eyes were expensive
And god only knows when I'll come to my senses
Now I can't breathe at all (now I can't breathe at all) Here's a toast to the lucky ones
To the girl that just broke my heart
(You ripped apart these pages)
I can't breathe
(Our love was overrated)
After all that you've told me
(This breaks up all these questions tell me what happened)
You took my heart and made melt again
(I'll say)
(You ripped apart these pages)
I can't breathe

(Our love was overrated)
After all that you've told me
(This breaks up all these questions tell me what happened)
You took my heart and made melt again
(I'll say)
Tell me what just happened
