

Deathlust

Sieben

My final conceit of poor exchange
My balance or my strengths
My actions or reticence in the end with darkness won
Close the day, set the sun
Contract accounts or draw the pain to settle the scores all weights are weighed Ignorance to compensate or refund for the wise Intolerance to gravitate or hate blind be drawn in kind in the end with darkness won
Close the day, set the sun
Contract accounts or draw the pain
to settle the scores all weights are weighed Love burns purely or spitting with reason kindling Forever
All bursting in season in the end with darkness won
Close the day, set the sun
to settle the scores all weights are weighed Or settling nothing, render terms subtractions that are left to worms
in the end with darkness won
Contract accounts or draw the pain
subtractions that are left to worms
