

Invincible

No Use for a Name

This conversation sickens me please let me out, I'll take the bus and though I try to understand, I didn't know How can you say that I'm a fool when all I do is help well I guess I'm a fool but I know that I'm not your pawn that feeling is dead and gone Pretend you're invincible and no one can save you from yourself pretend you're a super hero a fucking zero trying to save the world Please don't remind me of the past it's much too late to work it out and though I see the positive, I hear the doubt go off and hide your life away, these words are obsolete and I'm crazy to think that you'll wake up and come around the silence is made with sound Pretend you're invincible, there's no one to tell you that it's wrong they're all just as scared as I am it's over someday soon it won't be long Invincible
