

original me (feat. Dan Reynolds)

YUNGBLUD

Yeah I'm so sick of me, wake up and hate to breathe
And I pride myself in that, so dramatic, I'll admit
I'm so typical, my life ain't difficult
But I'm so caught up in it, just a lowlife, I'll admit
I'm self-critical, tryhard original
Oh, I pride myself on that, such a loser, I'll admit
And I ask myself, when my time will come
Will I run away, will I run away? I'm the original loser
Some days I wish I was anyone else
I'm the original loser
Some days I wish I was anyone else
I'm so paranoid, most people I avoid
Not seeking sympathy (Nah), I just want all of this Under an umbrella (Yeah)
I try to shelter myself from the rain
I try to stop my head from going insane
I'm counting down, all the days
I swear that there's a price they took
Being alone on Sunday
Can I suffocate you when they cannot fucking chase me out? (Ayy)
Anagram all of the letters, tellin' me that I'm gonna be fine
Cleaning the world is out of my mind
Piece 'em together and dump on the sides
I'ma be alone tonight if I try to stay alive and realise
I'm going blind (Congratulations) I'm the original loser
Some days I wish I was anyone else
(Congratulations) I'm the original loser
Some days I wish I was anyone else
Don't let 'em change your mind
Don't let 'em change your mind
And don't let 'em waste your time
Don't let 'em waste your time (Someone save me)
Don't let 'em change your mind
Don't let 'em change your mind (Loser)
Don't let 'em waste your time
Don't let 'em waste your time
Yeah, don't let 'em waste your time I'm the original loser
(Congratulations) Some days I wish I was anyone else
