IntroYeah

For real, for real

Ildude, Ildude, Ildude

Ya, ya, yaChorus x2Did you know that when you meet me you would be impressed

Did you know that when you f*ck me I would be the best

Did you know that when you think about me you get wet

Did you know I like you cause you like weed and sexVerse 1Did you know that I was on your top since we first met

Could you tell I liked you when I seen you on the strip

Did you know I called you when I ain't expect a hit

But then you threw that p*ssy at me and it was the shit

If I'm in the studio then I'm makin hits

But you know you could pull up on me quick and get this d*ck

Did you know I hustled hard since Iza little kid

Did you know I copped a pound and bagged it down to nicksDid you know I never ever got a tax return

But I just paid my taxes off for everything I earned

Made myself a boss I show my homies how to earn

Did you know about me well if not you need to learnChorus x2Verse 2You said you don't do the club and I had to contest

Did you know you go to One Oak and meet Kanye West

Now you all excited and you say it's nice to bless

Whatever makes you happy long as you ready to sexI f*ck with them n*ggas that be f*cking with the plugs

100 b*tches at the crib at night and not up in the club

My living room feelin' like the VIP in LIV

Do you know I'm with the shits if you with the shits?

Did you know I like you cause you smoke OG too

Did you know I think about you when you leave the room

Did you know you on my mind a lot and that's the truth

Did you know that when I think of sex I think of youChorus x2(Ad-Libs & Back-Ups Not
