

Company of Strangers

Third Eye Blind

At a night time washstand, you're staring me down
You had me so embarrassed
And this restaurant crowd was oh so loud
Your face had been crying, you were ravaged by jealousy
You said look what love has done to me
We could slip out the back right now if you want to save me Cause I know, you know, I know you want me
You start to haunt me I feel that danger
You like holding on to the company of strangers She said promise not to kill me and maybe I will let you in
Her apartment's cold as a mace can
She said I just want to get it, I don't need to understand
I said "show me your true face" and she said "I'd rather wear a blindfold"
Truth be told I want a robot
A robot heart is all I want
If you're the one who knows me best
So tell me why, why do I feel so so so so so so depressed
I want to live a life of danger
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best)
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best)
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best) In your eyes what you see
Is what you want me to be
So that's what I will be
What you want me to be
That's what I will be
What you want me to be Fu-fu-fuck, a-fuck away the emptiness until you get caught
In the loving arms of a robot
A robot heart is all you've got
If you're the one who knows me best
Tell me why, why do I feel so so so so so second best
I want to live a life of danger
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best)
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best)
I like holding on to the company of strangers
(You are the one who knows me best)
