

To Turn You On

Roxy Music

I could show you in a word if i wanted to
a window on a world
with a lovely view from close up inside a single room with an open book aside like you read in school it's so easy, believe me when you need fun
i do anything to turn you on anything to turn you on it's raining in new york on fifth avenue and off broadway after dark love the lights don't you i could walk you through the park if you're feeling blue or whatever spring summer whenever winter through fall i'd do anything to turn you on
i could leave you as you were
then i wonder is it fair now you're on your own who cares about you except me, god help me
when things go wrong
i do anything to turn you must phone me, you know me
