

Broken Glass

Boston Manor

Tonights the night to run a red light
Drive past the words & continue despite.
Despite what he said & the fact that he begged you to swallow your pride.
Just this once. Just this once.

Save tonight
Save the show
Broken Glass & Broken Bones.
Tonight, is all you'll know.
Show them how fast you can go.
Please slow down, you'll roll us both over.
The last that I heard, hell had froze over.

You lost your war
You lost your race.
They severed your pride.
Left a hole in your face.
Save tonight
Save the show
Broken Glass & Broken Bones.
Tonight, is all you'll know.
Show them how fast you can go.
So just swallow your pride & cover your head.
Because you're in the fast lane, to a hospital bed.

You risked it all
How fucking dare you.
Still show your face.
(How fucking dare you)
