Messy

Tom Aspaul

Baby I wanna know you're worth it
Baby I wanna know if you worth my time
I haven't seen you since my birthday
I wouldn't call you but it hurts my pride
Oh why do I run every time
Oh why can't I look at me in the eye
Did I say something wild?
I was out of my own
Did I say something wrong?
I appollogise
Did I say something wild?
You don't have to be good
Did I say something wrong?
Ohhh why do I?
Everything is so messy
Everything, Everything is so messy
I don't remember
Everything is so messy
Everything, Everything is so messy
Gonna be so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy
I don't remember
Everything, Everything is so messy
You only saw me on de weekend
Cause on the week days I would dround you out
No need to lie No need to pretend
That's why I'm so easy to figure out
Oh why do I run every time
Oh why can't I look at me in the eye
Did I say something wild?
I was out of my own
Did I say somethind wrong?
I apologise
Did I say something wild?
You don't have to be good
Did I say something wrong?
Ohh why do I?
Everything is so messy
Everything, Everything is so messy
I don't remember
Everything so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy

I don't remember
Everything is so messy
Ohh why do I run every time?
Ohh why can't I look at me in the eye?
Gonna be so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy
I don't remember
Everything, everything is so messy
Gonna be so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy
I don't remember
Everything, everything is so messy
Gonna be so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy
I don't remember
Everything, everything is so messy
Gonna be so messy
Gonna be, gonna be so messy
I don't remember
Everything, everything is so messy
