

Am I Born to Die?

Tim Eriksen

And am I born to die
To lay this body down
And as my trembling spirit fly
Into a world unknownA land of deepest shade
Unpierced by human thought
The dreary region of the dead
Where all things are forgotSoon as from Earth I go
What will become of me
Eternal happiness or woe
Must then my fortune be
