

O My My

Ani DiFranco

your body
foreshortened
below
your shoulders
your face
so close
it's out of focus
way down
the hallway
comes the sound
of your shoes
that is what i
what i think about
when i think about
you
if we let our love
off of its leash
do you fear, like i fear how fierce it could be? your headlights sweeping across my ceiling
the breadth of
my smile now
the depth of my feeling
way down in my dark life a shaft of your light shines through and that is what i
what i think about
you
how fierce it would be? o my my
