

Barren

Assemblage 23

Enough
I've taken all I can take
My heart is arid
My soul is barren Devoid
Of function and of form
I feel so empty
And ache inside of me Unrestrained and unrelenting
Emotions flood and then subside
The days decay like fading echoes
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide Sustain
A will to carry on
A silent burden
A voyage uncertain
Detached
From reason and desire
Go through the motions
With false devotion Unrestrained and unrelenting
Emotions flood and then subside
The days decay like fading echoes
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide Too much
It's more than I can bear
Feels like I'm breaking
Frightened and shaking I stand
On faltering belief
The cracks are forming
A muted warning
Unrestrained and unrelenting
Emotions flood and then subside
The days decay like fading echoes
Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
