Baby (feat. MNEK & Sinead Harnett)

Rudimental

Baby

BabyI've been staring down your way

Don't know exactly what to say

I'm wondering if you feel the sameBecause every time I'm looking down

The questions what you're dancing around

I'm sick of playing silly gamesTell me, am I the type you go for?

Am I just wasting my time?

Should I carry on? Or should I say no more?

All of the things running through my mind

Oh tell me, tell me baby Baby

BabyEvery single night and day

I wonder if it's just a phase

Or is it really something here? (Something here)

'Cause whenever that you're near to me

I feel it in my energy

Just put me out my miseryTell me, am I the type you go for?

Am I just wasting my time?

Should I carry on? Or should I say no more?

All of the things running through my mind()

Oh tell me, tell me baby Baby

BabyTell me, tell me, tell me

Baby

Baby

Baby

Baby

Baby
