

Walk Away

Ms Krazie

Listen to me baby,
I think it's best if you walk away
Before you do anymore damage
Acavaste con mi corazon What was the hardest part of being alone,
I'm guessin' is nothing compared to having you here at home
You don't even wanna be here, I don't even know why you lie
Is like your hiding from your self something your feeling inside
Hell I was always afraid that one day you would walk away
Now that am faced with what your givin' me nothing I can say
There's nothing more that I can do to try to keep you here
So many nights crying myself to sleep and you weren't here
And all the alchol I drank just to wash it away
Erase the pain and pass the point of insane
I've lost my mind thinkin about what could I do to get it right
I think is best if you walk away fuck it if I cry
I think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without
Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar
I think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without
Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar Now lemme brake it down
Since I can't seem to make you happy
I can't an I won't do anything to make you love me
Don't stay cus you see me cry
I cry because I tried and nothing happened
So I don't regret you walkin'
An I don't regret the times you made me laugh and held me close
I used to think of you when I went up the dose
Daddy keeps me sedated with the thing you put me threw
So I'm a dwell on the past until the day there's something new
I never thought you'd walk away, never thought you brake my heart
The only way you could brake... .
I gave you everything I had and you knew ...
I really really loved you to, but you never said it
I think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without
Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar
I think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without

Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar I wish that I could say it didn't hurt ot let you go
That I could behind a smile so you wouldn't know
Than everything would be okay, get myself back up
Take tyhe pieces of mi vida and just not give a ff...
But when it all comes down is hard to walk away
I know nothings gone change if you decide to stay
I'll be okay I guess it just takes time to forget you
Go back to life I once had before I met you
It won't be easy but my heart will understand
And with time it won't remeber all the good times that we had
You and I, me and you
I'll find love once again and this time I'll know for sure
And this time it will never ever end Think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without
Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar
I think is best if you walk away, leave and not turn around
Your one of the things I can live without
Even if am dying inside, mi corazon no puede mas ya te llorado un putal
Ahora sin te quier estar
