

With One More Look At You

Barbra Streisand

(I usually walk off here and walk back for my Encore and let you applaud More but I'm not gonna do that tonight I don't know, the one with the film Behind it, Oh Randy you didn't know

I was gonna do this, Oh my God, Everybody ready with the video? You know which one I mean? This is Because a star has born seems to be kind of one of your favorite films of Mine, I think you'll like this)With one more look at you

I could learn to tame the clouds

And let the sun shine through

Leave a troubled passed and I might stardom

I'll solve the mysteries if you're the prize

Refresh these tidy times

With one more look at you

I might overcome the anger that I learned to know

Find a piece of mind I lost so long ago

Your chain to touch has made me strong again

And I belong again

For when you look at me

I'm everything and more

Than I had dreamed I'd be

My spirit fills of promise

I won't be alone

With love and leave more out for moreWith one more look at you

I've learned to change the stars and change our fortunes too

And have the constellations and your portrait too

So all the whole world might share this wanderesses

The world could end each night

With one more look at you

With one more look at you

I want one more look at you(I wish you a Wonderfull holiday season full of light and love and peace And good health, thank you all for coming thank you so much thank you)
