

Strange the World

JL

Strange, they know the name worldwide
Justifies expectations are high
Hardest art alive, won't adjust our fight
Must archive the ride, didn't rush our drive
Choppers for protection though we trust our God
If they knock in your section you goin' bust or hide
Family tied, no plan B, no damn we tried
Who can deny me?
Can't see from the Brandy Rye
Livin' the fantasy managing to stay alive
In a time when good artists are vanishing
Everyone rapping, nobody's a fan to sing
You gotta have the money to escalate a team
Recall a time when I'd call everyone on my phone, wasn't anyone answering Blowing up, trippin 'cause now I can't stand anything
I want the recognition Imma let it ring
I light cigars like I handle, say what I don't mean when I begin examining
I have arrived and that's why they've been panicking
And I am a prodigy, oddity and a king
This what you was missin'
This is change, nigga
This the definition, do it big, keep it strange
I'ma strange everything, everyone
Strange every daughter, every son
Strange mainstream, here we come
Strange OG's, strange young
Strange London, Hong Kong
How strange it came to strange all
Strange fuse every boy, every girl
Strange you, Strange Music
Strange the world My passion is contagious, strangin' places
I'm dangerous with this language
Was anxious, but filled the pages
Mastered impatience, I'm crashin' locations
Till ain't no maskin' this face, I'm famous
Cash is stashed in the castle in back of Da Vinci paintings
The batch that I'm packaging up is crack
The Scatter Brain's name is synonymous with nuisance
Denying this shit's useless
All they can say is he ruthless
Jay aka Swanky Lucas
Cookin' this newness

Chef in the kitchen whippin' with a looseness
Bet they low key be trippin' how I do this
You wanna see the reason, keys and blueprints
Givin' my two cents
If you do pay attention to a new prince
Different opinion, difference, and views
You never listen when I'm giving you hints
Look at what you miss
I leave the people in the flash clueless
Waitin' on me to tell 'em what the move is
So let no evil in, nor reduce us
This what you would classify insane
This the definition, do it big, keep it strange
I'ma strange everything, everyone
Strange every daughter, every son
Strange mainstream, here we come
Strange OG's, strange young
Strange London, Hong Kong
How strange it came to strange all
Strange fuse every boy, every girl
Strange the world
