

Sticks and Horses (feat. GoldLink)

George Maple

Don't touch
Don't touch
Don't touch
Don't, don't, don't touch Sugar on my teeth
I didn't wanna leave
Without you sipping to my taste
I know this sweetness is wrong
I tell it from your tongue
That you're all alone but
Zip me up, untie me cause I need to move on
I know you think that I will stumble and fall
Think I will step right back and do this some more
You are the best thing and the worst thing I know
That's why I find it hard to control
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Don't you know, stop trying
You can play the field and then I could play the fool
Trying, this is not a game, game, making up the rules
Trying, every step you take, I'll make another move
Trying, you're just another, just another Ain't gon see you Monday, Tuesday, gotta hit me on the weekend
I missed your call, baby I been running, winning, it's all really busy
Player told ya, momma know ya, lovin' they gon' feed me
I'm a chef, whipping bitter sugar, and I don't eat your chicken
Told me GoldLink, you so crazy, I know that you're fuckin' [?]
I'mma swerve, baby swerve, ice cold, leave you freezing
Round the world, people feeling handsome, take a minute
When you're moving past her city, make her feel so independent
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Don't you know, stop trying
You can play the field and then I could play the fool
Trying, this is not a game, game, making up the rules
Trying, every step you take, I'll make another move
Trying, you're just another, just another Just another, just another
Just another, just another
Just another, just another

Just another, just another
I know you think maybe I'm leaving you
I am the best thing and the worst thing you know
That's why I am so hard to control
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
Read my lips, don't touch my heart
Cause I know you're wanted
