Sunsets You know it when you see it

You know it when it's there

Like Michael Jackson Thriller

Like Farrah Fawcett Hair

It's good shit

It's good shit

It's good shit

Oh yeah

Solar Energy

Nutella

Democracy

My voice

Enjoying ceviche in Peru and seeing a double rainbow

While listening to Bitches Brew as recorded by Miles Davis Andre 3000 Full length mirrors and her hair in a bun

Kids with big glasses that laugh when they run

Girls with old-school names like Ruby May

How infants with baby breath, yawn in your face (oh yeah)

You'll be tucked in every night for a month

By all of the American Apparel ad girls

American... American Apparel, and ad girls

You know what I mean?

I like it when you're under the ocean and all you can feel is calm

I like it when I'm sleeping

I like it when I'm listening to music because that's the only thing that takes me to another world

I like it when public bathrooms have scented candles

I like it when you talk to me like that

I like it when my hair is fluffy

I like it when it rains at night and I'm curled up in bed with a good book

I like it when I turn my head around and I catch you looking back You know it when you see it

You know it when it's there

Like Michael Jackson Thriller

Like Farrah Fawcett Hair

It's good shit (I like it when you play with my hair)

It's good shit (I like it when you play with my hair)

It's good shit (I like it when you play with my hair)

Oh yeah You know it when you see it

You know it when it's there

Like Michael Jackson Thriller
Like Farrah Fawcett Hair
It's good shit
It's good shit (Oh, it's good shit baby)
It's good shit
Oh yeah
