

Life (feat. The Gift of Gab & Syreneiscreamy)

Opiuo

Every morning I wake up and grab a pencil and journey into the world of my mind
It has the potential to take me to anywhere I imagine
I travel into invisible space and focus to help me capture the physical realm
Life is a journey and I'm livin to dwell
Some rappers wanna test me lyrically I'm givin em hell
Something like a verbal mystic put them into a spell
Something like my words are twisted like this is a pretzel
See I gotta bring em light if we livin in hell
Positive uplifting vibes instead of prison and jails
Put some soul inside the hollowness and give it a self
I am the laser choppin who you make an ignorant spell
Forever we delve in effortless skills as reverance builds Benevolent choice, the mighty verbal messenger till
The message is revealed. Y'all reppin it well.
Leave heavily trails of thought bliss left in the field
We gon' sing, we gon' sing
From the roots, to the roots, yeah
We gon' sing, we gon' sing
Little rhymes, little stories We gon' sing
From the roots, to the roots, yeah
We gon' sing If living is a dream
Forget it then I'll sleep
Forever in the waking state is the epitome
Of a legitimacy with the power of ten MCs
Who go in and don't start without the intention of finishing I'm on a level up above the level up above
I'm throwin lyrics like some punches - several uppercuts
Until they rupture guts of suck a ducks and puncture lungs
Till everyone is staring saying "Man look what you've done."
It's better than a shot of 'yak, a blunt, a vendor car
And what's a mess to all of them to me's nothing but fun
Nothing but one,
two, mic check and nothing but someone who use hip-hop in his mind to make something from none We gon' sing, we gon' sing
From the roots, to the roots, yeah
We gon' sing, we gon' sing
Little rhymes, little stories We gon' sing, we gon' sing
From the roots, to the roots, yeah
We gon' sing, we gon' sing Let's go
On the planet earth
All across the galaxy

Through the multi-versesLet's go
On the planet earth
All across the galaxy
Through the multi-versesLet's go
