

Alone

Susan Tedeschi

Been sitting 'round here baby, thinking 'bout our last long talk.
Been sitting here at this table at your favorite restaurant.
Been hoping I could meet you here so that I could make this perfectly clear
That all I do is think about you since you went and left me on my own I'm so alone, ohhhh, I'm so lonely baby. And i need to say that...
I know I was wrong, ohhhh. and I'm asking you to come back home
Don't wanna be here alone Listen your sweet body baby, tears are streaming down my face, yeah go on and make your mind up-your mind up I ain't got no where to be right now, baby But loving you's a long, long way from here and all I ask of you my dear Is maybe you would reconsider all the love you've missed since you've been gone I'm so alone, ohhh
I'm so lonely baby, and I need to say that I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
And I'm asking you to come back home, don't wanna be here alone I know I was the fist to say good-bye, I was a fool baby Look at these tears in my eyes And if loving you's a long, long way from here, then all I ask of you my dear
Is maybe you would reconsider all the love you've missed since you've been gone I'm so alone, ohh, I'm so lonely baby, and I need to say that I know I was wrong, I was so wrong
And I'm, asking you to come back home, don't wanna be here alone I'm so alone, ohhhh, I'm so lonely baby. Ohh yes, and I know that I was wrong, oh I was wrong But I'm asking you to come back home, I don't wanna be here alone I'm so alone...
(fades away...)
