

Welcome to Your Life (Gigamesh Remix)

Grouplove

We're back in buisness
You're such a big mess
And I love you
Yeah, I love you We're back in buisness
You're such a big mess
And I love you
Yeah, I love you Mean man, promise land
Nothing but a devil's hand
Trying to keep saying I feel okay
Telling myself this now for days Mean man, machine man
I've been nothing but a puppets hand
But nothing ever comes
Without a change
Welcome to your life, yeah, yeah
It could be a fantasy, yeah, yeah
Welcome to your world, my girl
Let it be your fantasty, oh yeah We're back in buisness
You're such a big mess
And I love you
Yeah, I love you We're back in buisness
You're such a big mess
And I love you
La la, love you Been wondering, I take a chance
That chance of circumstance
Cause nothing ever comes without a change
Welcome to your life, yeah, yeah
It could be a fantasty, yeah, yeah
Welcome to your world, my girl
Let it be your fantasty, oh yeah Yeah, I've figured it out, I've seen it all Like a shot in the dark I'll carry you home
Ask one's man
He'll say what's been done
All the roads in this world
Were made by the young Hey, here's the deal
We're back in buisness
Hey, here's the deal
We're back in buisness
Hey, here's the deal
You're such a big mess
And I love you

Yeah, I love you Welcome to your, welcome to your
Welcome to your world, my girl
Let it be your fantasy, oh yeah
Welcome to your life, yeah, yeah
It could be a fantasy, oh, yeah
