

Dragon

Tori Amos

Don't tell me a woman did this to you
Candy lies, candy lies, candy lies You touched my hand, I felt a force
You called it dark but now I'm not so sure Just stay a while, stay a while, stay a while
Why don't you stay a while, stay a while, stay a while 'Cause your wild card, boy, needs playing
Don't believe the lie your dragon needs slaying
Won't you lay here with me
And I will bring kisses for the beast
Lay here with me
Here with me
Don't tell me a woman did this to you
Candy lies, candy lies, candy lies When I look back over documents and pages
Ancient savageries Christened those inflated
Now it has come to light, the Gods they have slipped up
They forgot about the power of a woman's love Just stay a while, stay a while, stay a while Why don't you stay a while, stay a while, stay a while
'Cause your wild card, boy, needs playing
Don't believe the lie your dragon needs slaying
Won't you lay here with me
And I will bring kisses for the beast
Lay here with me
Here with me Don't tell me a woman did this to you
Candy lies, candy lies, candy lies
Candy lies, forgive my candy lies
