Black & White Jingle #1

Imani Coppola

Sometimes life may feel like it's sucking you up

But it's not, it may be just you suckingSometimes life may feel just like you're losing the race But you're not, you're just letting everyone else winSometimes it feels like everyone's being a

But they're not, it's just you being a dick to everyoneSomedays it seems like nothing works right But its fine, you're probably using it wrongYou wanna change the world, you better start with yourself

Charity starts at home in the skin you're in

I'm not sayin' you should go and change your face

But if it bothers you that much you should get a nose jobI'm talking about what lies beneath the black and white

There's a mass of gray, it is called your brainDo the math or hire someone to do the books

But you're the one gotta pay the taxes

All the colors in between birth and death
Are in your head, so you should stop bleaching your teethSo take a look at what you thought was black and white

And you will see that there was nothing there at all
