

Speeches

Walk Off the Earth

The second snow is heaven sent
You laid it out like evidence
Read all the words you never said
Like speeches for the President I drew your name in white cement
Made promises and reverence
To save them for your reference
A victim of my circumstance But oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
There's signatures to finalize
Our pen had found the bottom line
The past that had me paralyzed
And on my future analyzed And do you think we got it right
Or we'll both disagree this time
And will it turn the wicked tide
Or be a ghost that keeps us up at night But oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Will I ever know your name
'Cause I want to
Do you ever care to say
That you want me That's all I wanted Oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oh oh

Nobody, no, nobody but me

Oh oh oh oh oh oh

Nobody, no, nobody but me

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>