

Angel Baby

Dean Martin

(Angel baby you're mine forever)
(Angel baby, you angel baby you)
Who is the dream who starts me dreaming
 Angel baby
 Then keeps me worrying and schemeing
You, angel baby, you Who starts me walking 'round in clover
 Angel baby
 Then flips my crazy heart right over
 You, angel baby, you
Who is the chick I would pick as the absolutely perfect miss for me to kiss
 Who is the girl who can curl me around her finger when we kiss again
 Who can imagine what I'd give for Angel baby
 Just for the chance to love and live for
You, angel baby, you (Angel baby) you're mine forever
 (Angel baby) you, angel baby, you
(Who is the chick he would pick as the absolutely perfect miss for him to kiss)
(Who is the girl who can twirl him around her little finger when they kiss again)
 Who can imagine what I'd give for Angel baby
 Just for the chance to love and live for
 You, angel baby, you
 (Angel baby) you're mine forever
 (Angel baby) you, angel baby, you
