

Shadow of a Lonely Man

The Alan Parsons Project

(Lead Vocal - John Miles) Look at me now, a shadow of the man I used to be Look through my eyes and through the years of loneliness you'll see
To the times in my life when I could not bear to lose, a simple game

And the least of it all was the fortune and the fame

But the dream seemed to end just as soon as it had begun, was I to know?

For the last thing of all that was on my mind, was the close at the End of the show

The shadow of a lonely man, feels nobody else

In the shadow of a lonely, lonely man

I can see myself

(looking out of nowhere, looking out of nowhere) But the sound of the crowds when they come to see me now, is not the same

And the jest of it all is I can't recall my name

But I'll cling to a hope till I can't hold on anymore, anymore

And for all the acclaim I am all alone and I see as I look through the door

The shadow of a lonely man, there's nobody else

In the shadow of a lonely, lonely man

I can see myself
Look at me now, a shadow of the man I used to be

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>