

Strong

Sonna Rele

In a perfect storybook the world is brave and good A hero takes your hand a sweet love will follow
But a life's a different game the sorrow and the pain Only you can change your world tomorrow
Let your smile light up the sky
Keep your spirit soaring high
Trust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever Hold fast to kindness
your light shines forever and ever
I believe in you and in me
We are strong!
When 'once upon a time'
in stories and in rhyme
A moment you can shine and wear your own crown
Be the one that rescues you Through the clouds you'll see the blue
Trust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever
Hold fast to kindness
your light shines forever and ever
I believe in you and in me
We are strong!
A bird all alone on the wind
Can still be strong and sing Sing...
Trust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever
Hold fast to kindness
your light shines forever and ever
I believe in you and in me
We are strong!
