Strong

Sonna Rele

In a perfect storybook the world is brave and good A hero takes your hand a sweet love will follow But a life's a different game the sorrow and the pain Only you can change your world tomorrowLet your smile light up the sky Keep your spirit soaring high Trust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever Hold fast to kindness your light shines forever and ever I believe in you and in me We are strong! When 'once upon a time' in stories and in rhyme A moment you can shine and wear your own crown Be the one that rescues you Through the clouds you'll see the blueTrust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever

Hold fast to kindness

your light shines forever and ever

I believe in you and in me

We are strong!A bird all alone on the wind

Can still be strong and sing

Sing...

Trust in your heart and your sun shines forever and ever Hold fast to kindness
your light shines forever and ever
I believe in you and in me
We are strong!
