

The Axe

GOJIRA

I've been a victim to the blade against myself
Bloodletting all of my soul
Sucked in, paralyzed in this vortex
Reduced to the silence
In the dark Ive lingered too long
This sharpened axe, beam of light
I reach for and I master
Wield against these shadowsIts purpose now revealed in silence
Keep searching, question if this light ends
Now I will strike and dig with precision
Introspective eye, erase the concept
I lost my fears and the notion of time
I healed my sorrow
All boundaries are illusion
When you reach the center light
And reinforce the striking power
By chance you're followed
Its purpose now revealed in silence
Keep searching, question if this light endsAll ghosts dwelling in, inside, in the heart
I see them all, release their shadow
