

Anointed

Miguel

Yeah... yeah...Lay your face on the pillow
Push the covers where they be off
I can't take my eyes off you
We both know what we came here for
To weigh the truth and the lie
Should you lead, I will follow
Only truth is allowed
Our love fate knows no doubt'Cause your body's ready for war
And my body's built to endure
You, make me feel like a god
Make me feel like I've been anointed
Come to me, I'm your ride
That then resurrection
That then resurrection
Make me feel like I'm a god
Make me proud like I've been anointed
Make me proud like I've been anointed
Yeah... yeah... yeahEvery time is a blessing
Would you baptize me in your love?
(Baptize me in your love)
You have no problem confessing
Just as long as we speak in tongues
I lay my worship on you now
Just kneel and say what you want
Only truth is allowed
As we sing our praises out loud
Your body's begging for more
And my body's built to endureYou, make me feel like a god
Make me feel like I've been anointed
Come to me, I'm your ride
That then resurrection
That then resurrection
Make me feel like I'm a god
Make me proud like I've been anointed
Make me proud like I've been anointed
Yeah... yeah... yeahYou, make me feel like a god
Make me feel like I've been anointed
Come to me, I'm your ride
Only want the blessing
That then resurrection
You make me feel like I'm a god
Make me proud like I've been anointed

Make me proud like I've been appointed
Been anointed (My God)
Yeah, you've been appointed
Been anointed (My God)
