

Cannonball (feat. X Ambassadors)

Skylar Grey

Well, they can try to sink us but I'll just swim because my will is stronger than a gale force wind.
Look out, look out, cause each time I fall I'll be crashing down right through your wall.
Here I come
Cannonball, cannonball
Here I come Cannonball, cannonball, cannonball.
And when they light their torches, when they scream and yell
I'm gonna raise my flag and gonna give'em hell. Look out, look out, cause each time I fall
I'll be crashing down right through your wall.
Here I come
Cannonball, cannonball
Here I come
Cannonball, cannonball, cannonball.
At the end of the day
When the air is still and the sky is grey
Let's swim
Who will be standing?
I challenge you all
Bombs away, bombs away.
Here I come
Cannonball, cannonball
Here I come
Cannonball, cannonball, cannonball.
