

Too Much Jewelry

Migos

Zaytoven
What's up Zay
Trap holla Zay
Silence since the first day
Allow me to lead the way
I just spent a cool half a ticket on my jewelry
Clear white diamonds make your eyesight blurry
Excuse me I have on too much jewelry (skrt skrt)
Never too much, never too much, so much
I just cashed out on my neck, that's a house
Head out, fuck a spouse, we pop off, we ain't hearin' it
So much ice, young nigga, he delirious
Never too much jewelry, I'm serious
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, once I get it, spin it (spin it)
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, I'm a walkin' chicken (brr)
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, this is not a gimmick (no)
Money comin' in, they think we the ones that print it
Nah f'real, we the ones that print it
We the ones that trend it
It's a slight few ain't many
Started it from the beginnin' (back then)
They say money make 'em envy (envy)
My diamonds drawin' attention (look)
And they wet like Willie (splash)
Pocket cheesesteak Philly (cheese)
Bitch bad and she with it (bitch)
But I won't give her a penny (nah)
Tryna go to Pickadilly (where)
Rose gold's got roly
Over the beautiful feelin'
I'ma let you get the bitch (bitch)
But I'ma go get me some millions (M&M's)
I chose to give me some paper (chose to)
Never my own decision (mine)
Speed racin' in that Lamborghini I done fucked around and blew the engine
I pour a eight, on top of eight and just pour drank fuckin' wit' my vision
200K, count it before I do shows and fuck your opinion (fuck)
They told me I wouldn't make it, said I wouldn't amount to shit (shit)
Nigga smilin' in your face, really want you in a ditch
Half a ticket on my neck, quarter ticket on my wrist
That's that numer sharp mil plain jane like a bitch
They think that this shit is new, but we been really doing this

Talkin' pointers but you don't get points and don't get no assists
They say the ones that quiet be the ones that rich as bricks
Wanna walk in my shoes gotta take that risk
I just spent a cool half a ticket on my jewelry
Clear white diamonds make your eyesight blurry
Excuse me I have on too much jewelry
Never too much, never too much, so much
I just cashed out on my neck, that's a house
Head out, fuck a spouse, we pop off, we ain't hearin' it
So much ice, young nigga, he delirious
Never too much jewelry, I'm serious
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, once I get it, spin it (spin it)
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, I'm a walkin' chicken (brr)
Quarter ticket, half a ticket, this is not a gimmick (no)
Money comin' in, they think we the ones that print it
This ain't even all my jewelry
Never too much jewelry (jewel)
This ain't even half my jewelry
Never too much jewelry (yeah)
Mike Dean, Zaytoven
You know how we do it
Too much ice
Wassup baby
I see you bitch over there, lookin' nigga (kiss)
Skeleton AP on my wrist nigga
Takeoff just bought eight plain janes
Haha, know you're mad nigga
I just spent a coupe
Half a ticket on my jewelry
Clear white diamonds make your eyesight blurry
Excuse me I have on too much jewelry
Never too much, never too much, so much
I just cashed out on my neck, that's a house
Head out, fuck a spouse, we pop off, we ain't hearin' it
So much ice, young nigga, he delirious
Never too much jewelry, I'm serious
