

Summerholidays Vs. Punkroutine

Refused

I'm tired of losing myself to some stupid childhood dream of what I could have been Money proves the point and I'm stuck between summer holidays & punk routine
I shoot off a 100 things to remain more sorry than safe, you see I only get this fucking chance once and I just can't let it be Well, I'm still certain that what motivates me is more rewarding than any piece of paper could be Well adjusted & corrupt, all those icons that stole our teenage lust
A scenario of simplicity, a scenario of you and me
A scenario of simplicity, a scenario of you and me Rather be forgotten than remembered for giving in
Rather be forgotten than remembered - remembered - for giving in Rather be forgotten than remembered for giving in Rather be forgotten than remembered - remembered - for giving in
We're all tired of dying, so sick of not trying Scared that we might fail, we'll accomplish nothing
We're all tired of dying, so sick of not trying Scared that we might fail, we'll accomplish nothing Not even failure
Not even failure
Not even failure
Not even failure
Rather be forgotten than remembered for giving in
Rather be forgotten than remembered - remembered - for giving in Rather be forgotten than remembered for giving in Rather be forgotten than remembered - remembered - for giving in Giving in Giving in Giving in
