

Big Enough (feat. Molly Lewis & Jimmy Barnes)

Kirin J Callinan

I've lived in lonely cities
I've crossed deserts on camel back
And I've filled the whores of folklore with things I'd rather we forget
I could sweep you off the street so say if this is goddamn tough
But this town might be big enough See, I reckon what you're saying
But this dog's run every course
I've run without my boots on
I've raced without my horse
And then I ate my horse's meat straight from my horse's bones
'Cause this dog
Must roam alone
You can shoot me in the mountains
In the cold fat breeze
We could do it in the countryside
As we walk the plane
It wouldn't give us any closure
All cowboys need to trust
That this town might be big enough
For both of us Well, I've had to be a dark end liar
If I said this ain't a lonely town
And what I wouldn't give
To have a friend around
We could trade in all our silver bullets
And buy a patch of dust
This town might just be big enough
For all of us
Everybody!
This town!
This world!
Are you big enough?
From Australia
To America
And Russia
And China
All of Asia
Let me out
Europe
And Great Britain
Oh Canada
And Croatia

And Serbia
Kenya
India
We're serious
In Syria
Believe in us
Bolivia
Uganda
Be big enough for Africa
South Africa
South Korea
North Korea
Algeria
Nigeria
Antarctica
Around the Equator
Cuba
Indonesia
Jamaica
We'll take ya
To Florida
We'll catch you later
I'll catch you later
Christianity
Islam
Judaism
Let me out

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>