

Miracle Worker

SuperHeavy

Now this one reaching out to all the lovers who might be thinking of breaking up
Uh, or maybe, making up
Check it I missed a part of you I can't get back
Don't be a silly nilly
I'm always here for ya
Through the thick and thin
Not just because we argue
See I wanted to be true, but I can't do that Why not, what's stopping you? Don't be preposterous
I've got a lot of love, not just a lot of lust
If I only wasn't a fool, I'd be loving Well that's your own opinion, and you're entitled to it
I'll be lost in oblivion, if we don't continue through it There's nothing wrong with you I can't fix!
I come a runnin' with my little bag o' tricks
In an emergency I'm very well prepared
My scalpel, mask and gloves; don't ever get too scared Oohhooo, you're a Miracle Worker
Oohhooo, you're a surgeon of love
You have a medical condition
Oohhooo, can't wait to fix me up
And I promise I'll be back again
if you work your miracles on me
Your mentality was fresh
It touched my soul
Invigorating and refreshing, and interesting, and it feels right
My heart was drowning in stress
But you brought out the best in me
Love has a tendency, so I've been told, and so it seems like
My love and laser will regenerate your heart
No need for anesthetics
I'll go check your charts
I will reshape you, recast you from the mold
A brand new beautiful woman will blossom from the old Oohhooo, you're a Miracle Worker
Oohhooo, you're a surgeon of love
You have a medical condition
Oohhooo, can't wait to fix me up
And I promise I'll be back again
If you work your miracles on me
Oohhooo, you're a Miracle Worker
Oohhooo, you're a surgeon of love
You have a medical condition
Oohhooo, can't wait to fix me up

And I promise I'll be back again
If you work your miracles on me
