

Damien (feat. Funtcase)

Modestep

Listen here, right
You think you can just come in here,
and take over from something we all built together, do ya?
Who the fuck do you think you are?
No, no I dont wanna hear it mate
I said I don't wanna hear it.
10 fucking years of hard graft,
but you wouldn't know about any of that now would ya?
Working my fingers to the bone,
then you go and fuck it up for all of us.
You must think I'm some kinda cunt.
You've had your chance to prove yourself,
so pack your bags and fuck off.
Things are gunna change around here,
and it starts,
right,
now.
