

True Love

Madina Lake

If i lost it all in a fireball would you be there for me?
if the money's gone and the future falls would you walk away? cuz my confidence is vanishing will you leave me starving here to whither down and disappear as you walk away?Then just let me go, let me live. just leave me alone,

Buried here next to love on my own.i'll never trust, never feel, never love again, with just this bitter taste in mind.they always say true love is all you need but when true love is gone can we go on?
they say true love would never leave but my true love is gone, and i can't go on i'm in the catacombs of a broken heart where you used to be when i loved you for all the reasons that you hated yourself cuz you were desperate and pathetic but just as beautiful to me as the day you left and i became just a memoryjust let me go, let me live. just leave me alone,

Buried here next to love on my own.i'll never trust, never feel, never love again, with just this
bitter taste in mindthey always say true love is all you need
but when true love is gone can we go on?
they say true love would never leave but my true love is gone, and i can't go onnow it's 2 am and i'm picturing the way things used to be but all i see is you looking at him like you used to look at me they always say true love is all you need but when true love is gone can we go on?

they say true love will never leave but my true love is gone, and i can't go oni can't go on...

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>