

Ragman

Deacon Blue

offered her a roof
the rain had made it shine offered her a song wasn't really mine i showed her all my things she offered me belongings she thought i was a ragman she offered me possessions i tied them in a knot wrapped it in a note kept it in my pocket
i showed her all my things
she offered me belongings
she thought i was a ragman i came to her too soon she should have had a ragdoll and wound up with a ragman wings and kites and wedding rings all these charms i said i'd bring
i showed her all my things
she offered me belongings
she thought i was a ragman baby you're a rich man lost in a small world looking for a ragdoll wound up with a ragman
with a ragman
ragman

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>