

Lake Zurich

Gorillaz

[Intro]

Last chance to buy before you fly

Last chance to buy before you fly[Interlude]

Ok

In the morning it came to me, when returning, from Zürich to New York
I wanted to share this with you all because, even to me, it sounded ridiculous

But I'm only, after a long, complicated night

And I wind up sharing my music to the world

Everything before us

And it always comes forward
