

I'm Yours (feat. El DeBarge & Siedah Garrett)

Quincy Jones

Hasn't always been a sunny day
Now and then there's been a little rain
But together we remain
Nothing to lose, everything to gain
And I can't imagine what a day would be
If there never was a you and me
Just know I'll be here always
Through the years I have come to know
Rain makes a flower grow
And if it must rain let it pour
'Cause I'll be your strength and much more,
I am yours
It doesn't matter what tomorrow brings
I'm yours
If we were rich and we lost everything
I'm yours
We'll be a love for all the world to see
I'm yours
I know that you are mine
Just know that I am yours Like the sun on the morning dew
Everyday I feel renewed
Still room in my heart to fall more in love with you
If ever there was a bond between two
Even closer than the stars and the moon
I don't ever have to say a word
My heart can talk to you
You give me pleasure and
Nothing's better than
Showing you love in return
You are the one I adore,
That's why I am yours
It doesn't matter what tomorrow brings
I'm yours
If we were rich and we lost everything
I'm yours
We'll be a love for all the world to see
I'm yours
I know that you are mine
Just know that I am yours I'll be yours until the end of time
Then we'll start over in another life
Nothing means more to me
Forever I will be Just believe that I'm yours

It doesn't matter what tomorrow brings
I'm yours
If we were rich and we lost everything
I'm yours
We'll be a love for all the world to see
I'm yours
I know that you are mine
Just know that I am yours

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>