

Love Me with a Feeling

Bette Midler

Man: "All right! She's gonna sing!"

Rose: "All right, we all turn to page 438. Now, you know we all gonna sing along. Oh, I do love a revue."Ohhhhhh!

You know, women don't like this woman,
'cause I always speak my mind.

But the men ain't crazy about me,
'cause I love to take my time.If you're gonna love this woman,
gotta love me with a thrill,
'cause, baby, if you don't,

I gotta find a man who will.Love me with a feeling.

You got to love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin',
or you don't love me at all.

You know, I'm the kind of woman,
I don't want no halfway stuff.

If you're gonna turn me loose, baby, be sure I had enough.You know, the cops once took me in,
but I did not need the bail.

I just shook it for the judge and he,
he put that cop in jail.You got to love me with a feeling.

You got to love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin',
or you don't love me at all."All right, Milledge, this one's for you."

There was one cat who could not make it,
and Milledge was his name.

The only cat I ever knew who left before he came.

There he's a-standing,
drinkin' pop from a paper cup.

But when it's time for gettin' down,
Millitch can not get it up!You gotta love me with a feelin'.

Yeah, love, love me with a feelin'.

You got to love me with a feelin', or you can't love me at all."Oh, no, no. Wait. Oh, no. No, wait a minute. . . . I can't just walk out on my old friends, now can I?"

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>