

Forgiveness

Leona Lewis

mmmmm i don't want to spend another day pointing fingers while im placing blame i'm no angel, imperfect myself coz baby i get lonely here now and i don't want to put it all on you i admit i did some painful things it's true and i'm sorry for them, i'm making amends for always thinking i was innocent starting today i'm gonna change
don't wanna make the same mistakes coz i can see a new horizon the ice around my heart is melting and the hurt i feel is slowly dying now i'm no longer crying the bridge we burnt is being built again it's leading to a new beginning and it may never be the way it was and that's because i'm talking about forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness i wish we could take back the things we said coz what we said is not always what we meant we lost our heads in the moment and the words we used them like a weapon but no one thinks that we will walk away and we hate being the people we became i wonder bout that we're better than that and i still cherish all the things we had starting today
don't wanna make the same mistakes coz i can see a new horizon
the ice around my heart is melting
and the hurt i feel is slowly dying
forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness if everybody could forgive and forget (just forget)
think of all the times that we could spend being friends think about all the lives we could change and all the love we could make maybe how the world would be a better place in the end woahstarting today

and not make the same mistakesdo you know that i can see a new horizon
now i'm no no no
the bridge we burnt is being built again
forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness forgivenessforgiveness forgiveness forgiveness forgiveness (spoken) if everyone could just forgive the world would be a much better place heeee-ey
mmmmm
