

Noah

Devendra Banhart

Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
To what you and I appreciate Noah is a cowboy but nobody knows His cattle's on that hillside, still nobody knows Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate

Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
To what you and I appreciate But I know you'd like to run away
But it's hard with horseshoes made of clay
And the selfish friend, that I am, says
"Stay, my friend, my friend, my friend, my friend"
