Never Surrender

Combichrist

Self medicating, craving punishment Blaming myself for a world on fire No more shame, no more pity

No more

We rise from the ashesI will suffer

I will burn

Let hate prevail

Enslave my soul

But I'll never surrender

Silent words from a bleeding mouth

Swallows pride with a swollen tongue

Everything is nothing, life in a shallow grave

Too ashamed to feel joy life collecting dust

No more shame, no more pity

No more

We rise from the ashesI will suffer

I will burn

Let hate prevail

Enslave my soul

but I'll never surrenderI will suffer

I will burn

Let hate prevail

Enslave my soul

but I'll never surrender

Mental cancer hijacks your brain

Denying the reality you created for yourself

We rise from the ashesWe rise from the ashes!!!

I will suffer

I will burn

Let hate prevail

Enslave my soulbut I'll never surrender

I will suffer

I will burn

Let hate prevail

Enslave my soulbut I'll never surrender

Never surrender Never surrender
