

High Fashion

Dark

You could come over
You could come over
You could commit
You could commit
You could come over
You could come over
You could submit
Talking to you
I'm talking to you
Talking to you
I'm talking to you
No time to waste get in, get out
No extra weight to bring us down, down, down
Plastic tape full of love, in between
Glassing heart, powder soul, leather dream
Flashing lights, sirens call out to me
Flashing lights, sirens call.
I walk beside you, I walk beside you
I hold you near, I hold you near
I stand beside you, I stand beside you
You'll have no fear
I walk beside you, I walk beside you
I hold you near, I hold you near
I stand beside you, I stand beside you
I hold you near, I hold you near
Just hope that no one's watching me
When we connect and start to breathe
Plastic tape full of love, in between
Glassing heart, powder soul, leather dream
Flashing lights, sirens call out to me
Flashing lights, sirens call.
